Colleagues,

I am proud to say I work at Arconic, where the emphasis we place on safety, integrity, respect and excellence is the foundation for everything we do. Arconic’s Code of Conduct applies these core Values to our work with our stakeholders, serving as a blueprint for how we will continue to build Arconic together, and articulating the standard of behavior we expect every employee to demonstrate. The Code is a valuable resource whenever you have a concern or a question about the right thing to do, and it can help you better understand how to respond appropriately to various situations that may arise in your work.

It’s not only what we achieve, but how we achieve it, that matters. Throughout the Code, you will see references to the importance of speaking up. When you voice your questions or concerns, it allows us to learn about issues in real time and address them quickly. There are many resources in Arconic’s Integrity Help Chain (see page 39) available to you; don’t hesitate to ask for assistance.

When it comes to mitigating risk, you are Arconic’s first line of defense. Remember these two key points:

• Never ignore a problem (it can and likely will grow into a bigger problem), and

• Never compromise Arconic’s Values or your integrity for the sake of results.

Thank you for taking time to read and understand our Code of Conduct. I ask you to join me in making a personal commitment to doing business with integrity.

Setting High Standards
The Code of Conduct ("Code") is our roadmap for Leading with Integrity. All of us are responsible for following the Code and applicable laws and regulations, no matter where we are in the world. It applies to all employees, officers and directors of Arconic Inc., its subsidiaries and entities it controls. Violations of the Code will not be tolerated and may result in disciplinary action or termination of employment.

If we encounter conflicts between our Code or policies and the law, or a business unit or location sets stricter guidelines than the Code, we follow the higher standard. Arconic’s high standards are a competitive advantage—they help us attract and retain customers, shareholders and world class employees.

To maintain our high standards, we must each...

"I believe our company has incredible potential, built on the strength of this team, our capabilities and our customer relationships. Our shared challenge is to reinforce these strengths, close gaps and identify new opportunities to assume our rightful position as the industry leader, everywhere we choose to compete."

- Create a work environment that promotes Arconic’s Values.
- Know and follow the Code, laws, regulations, and our policies and procedures.
- Set a personal example. Be honest and professional.
- Speak up if you have a question or concern. Each of us has the responsibility to promptly report any known or potential violation of our Code or policies, any law, or regulation.
- Promote a culture where all ideas and opinions are valued and questions and concerns are heard and addressed.

- Your supervisor or team leader
- Human Resources Department

- Legal Department
- Your Integrity Champion
- Integrity Line

Please see page 39 for additional help chain information.

Q
One of my direct reports talked to me about an ethical dilemma he is facing. I want to be certain I’m giving him the right guidance, but I’m not sure how I should respond. What should I do?

A

The Code is always a good place to start. If you cannot find the answer in the Code, ask your manager for advice, but be careful to protect the confidentiality of the reporter. If you are still unsure, contact any of the resources listed in the Code.

The Integrity Line is available globally for you to seek advice or raise a concern, 24 hours a day, 7 days a week, in multiple languages.

Subject to local law, contact the Integrity Line if you:

- Need advice or have a question
- Wish to raise an issue or concern
- Raised an issue or concern and were not satisfied
- Are not sure where to go for information
- Are uncomfortable using one of the other resources listed above

An independent company receives all reported issues and concerns and promptly directs them to Arconic’s Ethics and Compliance Organization for follow-up. All questions and concerns are handled professionally and in a confidential manner. Employee cooperation, honesty and truthfulness are critical to our process.

You may remain anonymous when using the Integrity Line as permitted by local law. Certain European countries limit the topics you can report and your ability to report anonymously and ask a question.
FACING AN ETHICAL DILEMMA

When you are faced with a situation that does not feel right, STOP and consider these questions:

If you answer “no” or “I am not sure” to any of the questions, STOP and SEEK ADVICE.

PROHIBITING RETALIATION

Arconic has a no-retaliation policy. No one can take action against you for asking a question or raising a concern in good faith. Managers are responsible for ensuring that their teams understand this policy and comply with it.

If you feel that you or any of your colleagues are being retaliated against, report it immediately. An employee who reports potential wrongdoing regarding a U.S. government contract or subcontract has special rights and protections under U.S. law. Arconic takes all allegations of retaliation seriously and will promptly and thoroughly investigate. If the company finds that retaliation occurred, appropriate disciplinary action will be taken.

RETAILIATION

If an employee has raised a concern, any of the following actions by a supervisor or anyone else may be retaliation:

- Termination
- Demotion to a less desirable job, role or shift
- Unjustified negative performance evaluations
- Increased surveillance
- Denying training or mentoring opportunities
- Exclusion from team activities or key business discussions
- Harassment (see page 13)
- Threats

Q

A few months ago, I contacted the Integrity Line. I had found out that my team leader had awarded a large contract to a company owned by his brother. There was an investigation, and I believe the company took some disciplinary action. Since then, my team leader and some of my team members have stopped talking to me and have excluded me from business meetings. It is impacting my morale and my performance. Should I just keep quiet and hope that the situation improves?

A

No. The actions of your team leader and team members may be retaliation and should be investigated. Contact any of the help chain resources listed in the Code to report.

Business Conduct Policies

Anti-Retaliation Policy
Working with One Another
Operating Safely

“We should be focused on Safety, Quality, Delivery and Cost...in that order, and cost is extremely important!”

—Chip Blankenship, CEO

OUR TRUE NORTH

Because we value human life above all else, we are committed to working safely and promoting wellness. We have a shared accountability for protecting ourselves and our colleagues by performing our jobs in a safe and responsible manner. No matter where you work or what your job is, put safety first. We strive for zero work-related illnesses and injuries each year and will not compromise our Environment, Health and Safety (EHS) commitment.

LIVING OUR VALUES

- Know that zero is possible. Never deviate from the safe and proven method for performing a task. If you are unsure, do not proceed—stop and seek help.
- Promptly report all safety-related concerns, deviations and incidents even if no one was injured.
- Practice these six safety fundamentals every day:
  1. Follow safe work practices and proactively seek to improve them.
  2. Ensure that you and your colleagues are working in safe, reliable and controlled conditions.
  3. Before you start work, make sure all safeguards are in place.
  4. Adhere to all work design plans, permits and safety operating limits.
  5. Keep our work environment clean, orderly and safe.
  6. Stop work, or stop others, and seek help when you recognize an at-risk situation.

I work in a plant. One of my colleagues does not always follow the energy isolation (lock-tag-verify) procedure before starting a task. Should I say something?

Yes. The procedure is in place to prevent hazardous energy from fatally or seriously injuring someone. By not following the procedure, your colleague risks a life threatening injury. Speak up, stop work and seek help.

Environmental, Health and Safety Policy and Principles
Keeping a Secure Work Environment

Our focus on safety includes a commitment to maintaining a secure work environment. Every Arconic employee plays an important role in actively supporting a workplace that is free of violence, threats and intimidation.

LIVING OUR VALUES

- Follow all building security rules for your site.
- Never bring a weapon to work. Weapons include, but are not limited to, firearms (guns), swords, explosives, and any other item whose purpose or use is to cause harm.
- Never do or say anything that could cause someone to feel threatened or unsafe.
- Report any suspicious persons, threats of violence, presence of weapons or any concern you may have for your personal safety to your supervisor, Human Resources or local security as soon as possible.
- In emergencies, follow local emergency reporting procedures or contact the authorities.

Global Security Policy

Maintaining a Drug-Free and Alcohol-Free Workplace

Our work requires alertness, accuracy and quick reflexes. Arconic employees are expected to perform their duties free from the influence of drugs and alcohol that can adversely affect safety, productivity and judgment and can cause serious accidents. Illegal drugs, controlled substances and misused over-the-counter or prescription medications have no place in our workplace.

LIVING OUR VALUES

- Report to work free from the influence of drugs and alcohol.
- Do not bring these substances to work, use them at work or give them to others.
- Notify your supervisor if you are taking medication that may affect your work.
- Report it immediately if you believe a colleague is working while impaired.
- Seek assistance through your location’s Employee Assistance, Family Support and Counseling Program if you have a drug or alcohol problem.
Treating Others with Respect

OUR TRUE NORTH

Building a talented and diverse workforce strengthens our company and its competitive advantage. Each of us plays an important role in creating an open and inclusive workplace, where every individual is able to freely contribute to Arconic’s success. At Arconic, we accept our colleagues’ varied backgrounds, cultures and perspectives and value our differences.

LIVING OUR VALUES

- Treat others fairly and with respect.
- Speak up if you see someone being treated unfairly or disrespectfully.
- Avoid actions that someone might consider bullying or harassment.
- If you are responsible for hiring, firing, pay decisions, promotions or employee discipline, focus solely on the person’s qualifications, abilities, experience and performance.

WHAT IS HARASSMENT?

Harassment is an unacceptable, hostile, or offensive action directed against anyone and includes:

- Making inappropriate jokes or comments—what you find to be funny may be offensive to others
- Teasing a colleague about his or her race, color, religion, national origin, disability, sexual orientation, gender identity/expression, veteran status, genetic information, sex or age
- Bullying
- Sharing unsolicited opinions about a person’s sexual orientation or gender identity / expression
- Making sexual advances or requests or sharing sexually-explicit or other inappropriate materials

A colleague made offensive jokes at an offsite dinner with a customer. Does the Code apply?

Yes. It applies to our work wherever we are. That includes what we do on Arconic property and at off-site meetings, business travel and business-related social activities.

Anti-Harassment Policy

Equal Employment Opportunity and Affirmative Action Policy
Conducting Business Globally
Preventing Bribery and Corruption

OUR TRUE NORTH

We compete on the merits of our products and services and do not tolerate any form of bribery or corruption—regardless of local practice or custom. While global business laws are complex and can change, remember, no matter where in the world you work, there is a law or policy prohibiting bribery that applies to you.

LIVING OUR VALUES

- Follow the Arconic Anti-Corruption Policy and procedures and all relevant anti-corruption laws including the U.S. Foreign Corrupt Practices Act and the UK Bribery Act, which apply to our activities worldwide.
- Understand how to recognize situations that can signal corrupt practices.
- Never offer or give a bribe or ask for or accept a bribe.
- Interact appropriately with government officials—bribery laws are often stricter when working with government officials.

WHAT IS A BRIBE?

A bribe is offering, giving or receiving anything of value (no matter how small) in order to improperly influence a business decision and create an unfair business advantage. This may include:

- Cash, gift cards or gift certificates
- Loans
- Gifts, entertainment and hospitality
- Political contributions
- Payment of travel expenses—especially when there is no clear business purpose for the trip
- Favors, such as “putting in a good word” for a child’s private school application
- Personal services—such as a car service or a personal chef
- Offers of employment
Follow Arconic’s Due Diligence and Contracting Procedure for Intermediaries when hiring others to act on Arconic’s behalf. All intermediaries must be approved, supervised and follow Arconic’s Code of Conduct.

Do not make facilitation or “grease” payments. These are small payments to government officials to encourage them to perform actions they are already required to perform, such as clearing goods through customs or issuing a permit. The sole exception is when you believe you are in imminent personal danger. In that case, do what is necessary to safely remove yourself from the situation and promptly report it to Arconic’s Legal Department.

A government official invited me to a fundraiser for his favorite charity. The charity has a good mission and I think a contribution would help our business relationship. May I buy a ticket and make a donation?

We must never provide an individual something of value to influence a business decision. While a charitable donation may not appear to benefit the official directly, it may benefit him indirectly, such as by raising his status in the community or improving his chances for re-election. Because the rules about bribery of government officials are strict and difficult to navigate, contact Arconic’s Legal Department or Ethics and Compliance for specific guidance.

WHO IS A GOVERNMENT OFFICIAL?

We must never engage in any activity that could be interpreted as improperly influencing a government official. There are strict rules that apply to our dealings with government officials. Their status as government officials is not always obvious. “Government officials” include:

- Officials and employees at all levels of governments
- Military personnel
- Candidates for political office and political parties
- Employees of government-owned or controlled businesses
- Employees and officials of public international organizations
Acting Responsibly when Giving or Receiving Gifts and Hospitality

OUR TRUE NORTH

Gifts and hospitality can help build goodwill and strengthen a business relationship. These courtesies (such as goods, mementos, favors, benefits, honorariums, services, meals, recreations, entertainment, lodging, tickets, travel, offers of employment, etc.) are common and expected in many cultures. At the same time, they can create real or perceived concerns about personal integrity. It is important to avoid anything that creates an improper business advantage or even appears to influence someone’s business judgment.

LIVING OUR VALUES

- Follow our Gifts, Hospitalities, and Travel Procedure and always use good judgment.
- Know that gifts and hospitality given to government officials require special approvals.
- Politely decline any gift or hospitality that does not comply with our policies and inform your manager.

Business Conduct Policies

- Anti-Corruption Policy
- Gifts, Hospitalities, and Travel Procedure

Q&A

A vendor has invited me to an information seminar about a new product followed by dinner and a hockey game. May I go?

It may be appropriate to attend the seminar if it is not lavish, is reasonable, and has a business purpose. Discuss the invitation with your manager before accepting. Remember, if the vendor is currently competing for Arconic business, then it is not appropriate to accept gifts, hospitalities or entertainment while the decision is pending.

SOME RULES OF THE ROAD WHEN YOU WANT TO OFFER OR ACCEPT A GIFT OR HOSPITALITY:

<thead>
<tr>
<th>PROCEED when gifts or hospitality are:</th>
<th>STOP when gifts or hospitality are:</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Legal and consistent with our Values, local customs and the policies of all parties involved</td>
<td>Cash or a cash equivalent such as a gift card or gift certificate</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Given for a legitimate business purpose</td>
<td>Offered or received for the purpose of influencing a business outcome</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Reasonable, not lavish—and not provided on a regular basis</td>
<td>An embarrassment to you, Arconic or anyone else</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Approved and documented accurately in our business records</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
</tbody>

Avoiding Conflicts of Interest

OUR TRUE NORTH

We share a responsibility to avoid conflicts of interest. A conflict of interest occurs when our private interests or actions interfere—or appear to interfere—with the interests of the company. We must always be transparent about outside activities and relationships. Many times conflicts can be avoided or resolved through open and honest discussion.

LIVING OUR VALUES

- Recognize situations and personal relationships that might make it hard for you to be objective.
- Refrain from holding outside employment or business dealings that could interfere with the performance of your job at Arconic.
- Never seize a business opportunity that you learn about through your work at Arconic.
- If at any time you think you may have a potential or actual conflict of interest, disclose it promptly to your manager, Arconic’s Legal Department or Ethics and Compliance.

Q

My daughter works for Arconic in another department. Could this be a conflict?

We have many situations where family members and others in close personal relationships work for Arconic. Since every situation is unique you should report the situation to your manager as well as Ethics and Compliance. In many cases there is no conflict of interest; however it is important to be transparent about relationships.

Competing Fairly and Legally

OUR TRUE NORTH
Fair and open competition benefits our customers and communities. We compete for business aggressively, honestly and solely on the merits of our products and services. Competition and antitrust laws are complex, and failure to follow them can have serious consequences for Arconic as well as the individuals involved.

LIVING OUR VALUES
- Understand how competition laws apply to your activities and seek guidance from Arconic’s Legal Department when you have questions.
- Obtain approval from your manager before you meet with competitors. This applies to professional associations, training, labor negotiations, joint ventures, technical committees and supplier conferences.
- Never communicate with a competitor about:
  - Prices or matters affecting price such as promotions, credit or other terms and conditions
  - Production or inventory levels
  - Bids or our bidding process
  - Dividing production, sales territory, products, customers or suppliers
  - Aspects of sales agreements such as a customer’s right to sell products
- Do not engage in deception or espionage to get information about our competitors.

Q&A

I would like to attend an industry trade association meeting. I know competitors will be there. Is there anything I need to look out for?

First discuss the meeting with your manager. You and your manager must weigh the value of attending against the risks associated with the expected contact with competitors. Be careful in all of your contacts at the meeting, even social events and casual conversations. Never discuss prices, costs, sales, profits, production levels or other competitive subjects. If they come up, stop the conversation and make it clear to all present that the topic is off limits. Leave and contact Arconic’s Legal Department.

Compliance with Antitrust Laws Policy

Corporate Procedure: External Associations and Organizations, Contacts and Meetings with Competitors
Complying with International Trade Requirements

OUR TRUE NORTH

As a responsible member of the global business community, Arconic strictly complies with all U.S. and international laws, regulations and Arconic policies relating to the import and export of Arconic goods, technologies and services for both military and commercial applications. Trade compliance knowledge is an essential element of Arconic’s business planning strategy, growth and daily activities. In all cases, we must accurately and openly report our importing and exporting activities.

LIVING OUR VALUES

- Stay current on trade compliance laws and regulations, keeping in mind that the rules are complex and can change.
- Obtain required licenses and approvals before exporting or importing products, technology or services. Know and follow the current restrictions on:
  - Trade and financial dealings with specific countries, individuals, groups and organizations
  - Sales of certain products, technologies and/or services, which can depend on their intended use and intended users
  - Rules of engagement regarding business activities between U.S. and non-U.S. persons, both in the United States and abroad
• Understand the anti-boycott laws and regulations of the United States that prohibit participation in boycotts not condoned or authorized by the United States. Contact the Trade Compliance Department if you receive any communication or other document with a request for information about a boycotted country or a “blacklisted” company.

• Protect the security of our products from the time a product is ready for shipment, through the transportation chain, until it arrives at its intended destination.

International Trade Compliance Policy

WHAT IS AN EXPORT?

Shipping a product across national borders is an export that may be subject to licensing and approval requirements and trade restrictions. Exports can also include:

• Emailing information or technology across national borders—even to another Arconic employee or a coworker at your plant who is traveling in another country

• Sharing technical information in your office with anyone who is not a citizen or a permanent resident alien in your own country (a “deemed export”)

• Traveling outside the U.S. with products or technology—including laptops and their content such as operating software and technical data

• Giving access to export controlled technology to anyone who is not a citizen or a permanent resident alien in your country, including posting information on a website
Preventing Money Laundering

OUR TRUE NORTH

We comply with money laundering laws worldwide. Money laundering occurs when companies or individuals attempt to conceal or disguise the proceeds of unlawful activity by moving them in a manner that hides their source and makes them look legitimate. All of our operations must safeguard against the use of such funds to pay for Arconic goods and services.

LIVING OUR VALUES

- When making payments to or accepting funds from third parties, follow Arconic’s financial policies and procedures.
- Contact Arconic’s Ethics & Compliance Department if you suspect any improper activity.

Anti-Corruption Policy

Cooperating with Government Requests and Investigations

OUR TRUE NORTH

Arconic cooperates fully with government requests and investigations.

LIVING OUR VALUES

- Contact Arconic’s Legal Department to discuss the appropriate handling of government investigations and visits as well as all government requests for Arconic records (other than routine requests that are a normal part of your job).
- Always provide accurate and truthful information in response to government requests.

RECOGNIZING MONEY LAUNDERING

Remain alert to situations that look suspicious or may indicate that someone is using or wants to use their transactions with Arconic for money laundering, such as:

- Requests for payments in cash or cash equivalents
- Payments made by a third party for the benefit of a customer
- Unusual transfers to or from countries not related to the transaction
- Customers who are not open and transparent about their ownership or seem eager to avoid our recordkeeping requirements
Building Strong Partnerships
Focusing on Quality

OUR TRUE NORTH
The quality of products and services we provide to our customers is critical to our continued success and sustaining profitable growth. Focusing on quality means meeting our customers’ requirements and delivering products and services at the right quality levels, on time and at the agreed-upon cost.

LIVING OUR VALUES
- Expect the same behavior from our suppliers that our customers expect from us.
- Comply with all quality control standards, customer requirements and product testing procedures.
- Speak up if you discover an actual or potential product quality or safety issue. “See something, say something.”
- Refrain from changing products, parts, or service specifications, unless authorized by the customer and permitted by applicable regulations or commercial practices.

Fostering Positive Customer Relationships

OUR TRUE NORTH
We value our customers and treat them fairly. Our goal is to build honest and transparent relationships based on mutual trust. By finding ways to create value for our customers, when they win, we win.

LIVING OUR VALUES
- Honor our commitments and contractual obligations.
- Communicate honestly about our products, services and prices.
- Listen to our customers and consider their points of view when making decisions.
- Strive to anticipate, respond to and meet or exceed our customers’ expectations.

Quality Policy
Quality Community

Q
We are going to miss the promised shipment date for an order of airplane landing gear parts because final product testing will not be completed in time. The customer has approved shipment of orders under these circumstances before. Can we ship this order without all the testing completed?

A
No. The sales contract with the customer requires that the product fully conform to all negotiated product specifications prior to being shipped. Documented customer approval must be obtained to ship product that is known to be nonconforming or for which required product testing is not complete.
Complying with Government Contracting Requirements

OUR TRUE NORTH

Special laws and regulations apply when we do business with the U.S. defense industry, government agencies, and government-owned businesses, or when we sell directly or indirectly into the government marketplace. We fully comply with the specific requirements that apply to these transactions.

LIVING OUR VALUES

- Provide current, accurate and complete information for government contract bids and proposals.
- Make certain that all timecards, entries, costs, claims and statements submitted in the performance of a government contract are accurate and complete.
- Do not deviate from contract requirements without authorized government approval. Deviation includes unauthorized substitution of processes, parts, or components.
- Consult with Arconic’s Legal Department before extending an employment offer to a current or former government employee.
- Ensure that your business is familiar with the special requirements associated with selling directly or indirectly into the government marketplace.

I am in charge of purchasing a product for Arconic. After a competitive bid, Supplier A looks to be the best choice based on price, quality and terms. However, my boss has instructed me to contract with Supplier B, who bid at a higher price and on less favorable contract terms. He said that he has a close friend who works at Supplier B and they would like to have Arconic’s business. What should I do?

You are responsible for seeking the best value proposition for Arconic based on objective criteria. If you feel uncomfortable discussing your concerns with your supervisor, contact any of the help chain resources listed in the Code.

Commercial and Supplier Contract Authorization Procedure
Protecting Information and Assets
Respecting Privacy and Protecting Personal Information

OUR TRUE NORTH

We all have a responsibility to protect the personal information of our colleagues, customers, suppliers and others with whom we do business. Even within Arconic, personal information should be shared only with those who need it to perform their job. Adequate safeguards should be put in place to ensure the information is not disclosed to anyone else.

LIVING OUR VALUES

- Understand and follow all applicable laws, policies and procedures when working with personal information. This includes how it is collected, used, stored, shared, and deleted.
- If you accidentally disclose or receive personal information without authorization, promptly report it to Human Resources.
- If you become aware of a security breach that may have given someone unauthorized access to personal information, promptly report it to Human Resources and IT support.
- Arconic employees who purposely disclose or misuse personal information will be held responsible and may face disciplinary action and civil and criminal penalties.

Policy on Personal Data Privacy

I received a call from a vendor asking for the name, title and email address of employees in my department. She would like to extend a special sales promotion to these employees. Is it ok to share this information with her?

No. Information about our employees is confidential and should only be given to those who are authorized to have it. Contact Human Resources prior to sharing any personal information about our employees or customers.

WHAT IS PERSONAL INFORMATION?

Personal information includes anything that can be used to identify someone. Examples include:

- Contact information such as addresses and phone numbers
- Government-issued identification numbers, such as Social Security, driver’s license or national insurance numbers
- Compensation information, performance records and the contents of personnel files
- Medical information, leave requests, benefits enrollment and claims
- Credit card, debit card and financial account numbers
Avoiding Insider Trading

OUR TRUE NORTH

Although Arconic may share information with certain employees to allow them to perform their jobs, we are not always ready to release that information to the public. If you become aware of information that would be likely to affect the price of Arconic’s stock or other securities once it becomes known to the public, you are in possession of material non-public information. Trading on material non-public information or passing it to others violates Arconic policy and may be illegal.

LIVING OUR VALUES

- When you are an insider (an employee is an insider) who has material non-public information, do not buy or sell Arconic’s securities until the information has been publicly released by Arconic.
- Never trade in the securities of any other company based on material non-public information about that company that was obtained through your work at Arconic until it has been officially released to the public.
- Do not share material non-public information with anyone else, including colleagues, family members or friends.
- Follow all blackout restrictions and guidelines that apply to your trades in Arconic securities.
- Consult with your supervisor or Arconic’s Legal Department if you have any questions.

I want to buy Arconic stock under an Arconic savings or other benefit plan. Do the insider trading rules apply?

Yes. You need to be alert to the insider trading rules whenever you buy or sell Arconic securities. You can only transfer money into or out of the Arconic stock fund in an Arconic savings plan or other benefit plan when you do not have material non-public information and there are no blackout restrictions.

Maintaining Accurate Books and Records

OUR TRUE NORTH

Accurate records are critical to making sound business decisions. Investors and the public count on Arconic to use and provide accurate information so they can make informed decisions. Our books, records and accounts must correctly reflect all transactions and activities and must meet applicable laws, regulations and standards, and comply with Arconic’s Financial Management Handbook.

Insider Trading Policy
LIVING OUR VALUES

- Ensure that all information and business records that you prepare, process or approve are accurate and complete and comply with applicable laws, standards and procedures.
- Never falsify a record or try to hide the true nature of a transaction.
- Do not try to bypass internal controls and procedures, even if you think it would be harmless or save time.
- Always cooperate with Arconic’s internal and external auditors and be open and honest with them.
- Never hide or destroy records to avoid disclosure in legal or government proceedings.
- Be familiar with our record management policies and retention schedules that apply to records and information in any format, including electronic and paper copies.
- Follow instructions that you receive from Arconic’s Legal Department to retain documents, such as required holds in ongoing or anticipated litigation and government investigations or audits.

WHAT IS A BUSINESS RECORD?
The information and documents you create or use in your job are business records. Arconic’s financial ledgers are one type of business record, but so are:

- Manufacturing reports and test results
- Safety records
- Expense reports
- Invoices
- Time records
- Email and voicemail communications

My manager asked me to ship an order earlier than the customer’s requested shipment date. He indicated that this would enable us to meet our sales goal for the quarter. Is it alright to proceed with the shipment?

No. We cannot recognize sales for goods shipped before the customer’s requested shipment date. To change a shipment date, we must first obtain the customer’s written permission. If your manager still insists you process the shipment, do not proceed and immediately contact one of the help chain resources listed in the Code.
